Summary of reasons for decision:

The publication promotes and supports the exploitation of children or young persons for sexual purposes and is deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The publication is a computer image file which depicts sixteen thumbnail images taken from a video. It depicts an Asian female who appears to be an older child or very young teenager. The thumbnails depicts the subject in a state of sexualised nudity and performing sexual acts. The sole purpose of the image is sexual arousal. The continued availability of such material encourages and reinforces a sexual interest in children and young persons. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention and is a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression. The classification reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
